

Interested in Federal Probation?

The District of Idaho United States Probation and Pretrial Services welcomes opportunities to share the mission of the agency. United States Probation Officers are available to speak to interested organizations on a variety of topics relating to their work in the investigation and supervision of federal offenders.

Previous Topics of Discussion:

- The Work of the United States Probation Officer
- Introduction to the Federal Courts
- Global Position Tracking of Offenders
- The United States Probation Office Internship Program
- Introduction to the Federal Sentencing Guidelines
- Sentencing Post Booker